ARTISTIC LIFE

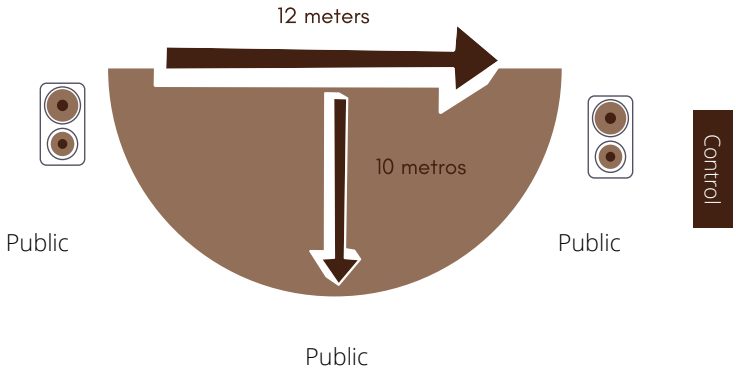

Francis J. Quirós

Francis J. Quirós is known for his 20 years of continuous training, rehearsals, premieres and tours throughout Spain and beyond. twenty years acting, creating and devising new projects and roads, and already in a more mature stage directing. With an active presence in the Extremadura scene, formed at the beginning a theater company with Jonathan González, 'Los Apretacoretas', dedicated entirely to humor and contemporary comedy. Thirteen years of experience endorsed his success. In television he began his career in Canal Extremadura with the night live 'Binbazzo' (2005) and some years later he returned with the children's program 'Técula Mécula '(2012). In cinema he co-starred in the film 'Santarrostru' (2016) by Néstor del Barco, and shoots in 2017 his first medium-length film as Director, 'La Bed'. In 2020, he will premiere his short film 'Little Lioness'

In his acting career he has worked alongside great professionals such as Juan Carlos Tirado, Paco Carillo, Denis Rafter, Esteve Ferrer or Pepe Viyuela in various productions of Extremadura companies such as 'La vida es un sueño' of Calderón de la Barca, 'Rómulo, el grande' by Friedrich Dürrenmatt, 'El Gorgojo' de Plauto, 'El seventh seal' of Woody Allen, or 'Oedipus the King' of Sophocles. As a theater director he has set up stories originals such as 'Dirty rags' from Cia. Olibaba, 'Stupidly', magic show and clown, or 'Manco and de la Mancha' of the HumoreAmore Company. And at this point, and above all giving a change of style but not of course, creates in 2018 'Filis Teatro', a Theater Company strongly committed to combination of contemporary comedy and clown. his first production 'Cuckoo. When the ephemeral is stops' has managed to attract national attention and international, has visited different fairs, exhibitions and festivals (MAE '18, Feira Teatro Agosto de Fundao '19, FITIJ de Santarém '19, Malabharía '20), has been included in the Madrid Theater Networks and Extremadura, is "Recommended" by SAREA and ends to be included in the PLATEA program of the Ministry of Culture in 2020.
